The Subscribers (nearly 1,000), and musical and other journals, have unanimously pronounced this work to be the most useful and successful Organ Book which has ever been brought out in this country. Subscribers for not less than one year can commence at any period, and receive back numbers at the Subscription price. Annual Subscription, 10s.; Non-Subscribers, 5s. nett, each Part. Every number consists of 20 pages of music, printed on excellent paper, from oblong folio plates, engraved in the most superior style.

OPINIONS OF THE PRESS.

(From the Musical World.)

... "There is little fault to be found with the works before us. They are varied in style, but each of its kind is a meritorious piece. ... A valuable work for all classes of musicians."

(From the Choir and Musical Record.)

... "The first number contains five pieces, melodious, animated, and all adapted to the genius of the instrument."

(From the Western Times.)

... "Dr. Spark's name is a guarantee that all the compositions appearing in the Journal will be well worthy of the position which he holds in his profession. The work supplies a long-felt want—that of giving, periodically, original and modern compositions for this noble instrument."

(From the Yorkshire Gazette.)

... "We can strongly recommend the work, both to professors and amateurs."

(From the Yorkshire Post and Leeds Intelligencer.)

... "This is a praiseworthy undertaking, and we have to congratulate Dr. Spark on a publication at once so good and so classical."

(From the Express.)

"Every professional organist who values his reputation, and every amateur who desires to be au fait in organ music should possess this work."

(From the Choirmaster.)

"The contents of the first number of the Organist's Quarterly Journal show clearly that Dr. Spark is alive to the benefit that may accrue to organ music in England, from letting in upon it the current of modern continental thought in this province of the art. Dr. Spark may congratulate himself on this the first number of the Organist's Quarterly Journal."

(From the Musical Times, June 1, 1869.)

"It is very evident from the number before us that Dr. Spark has no intention of allowing his spirited enterprise to languish after the first bold push. The inaugural number was in almost every respect a success, but the second is an improvement even on that; and we have no hesitation in saying that should the work, in its ultimate issues, keep up to its present high standard, it will mark an era in the history of organ music in this country."

(From the Post.)

"It is a marvel of cheapness and excellence."

(From the Musical World.)

"The second part is even better than the first."

MASON AND HAMLIN PEDAL ORGAN (27 Notes), 7 Stops 60 Guineas.

Drawing-Room Organs from Twenty Guineas.

From HENRY J. LESLIE, Mus. D.

Leicester 1st September, 1869.

The American Organ has arrived in perfect order. I hardly know how to express to you my great satisfaction with it—the richness, purity, and mellowness of its tones are most enchanting; I never before met with an Instrument so near perfection.

From WM. TIGHE HAMILTON, Esq.

Rathmines, Dublin, September 6th, 1869.

My opinion of the American Organ, as a Drawing-Room Instrument, is most favourable. I do not find mine too loud for a small room, whilst it has none of that reedy tone so disagreeable in Harmoniums.

From Mrs. WARREN PEACOCK,

Efford, September 2nd, 1869.

I am perfectly satisfied with my American Organ, and think it charming, far superior to any Harmonium.

THE
Supplemental Hymn and Tune Book,

(WITH NEW APPENDIX)

EDITED BY ROBERT BROWN-BORTHWICK,
INCUMBENT OF GRANGE, KESWICK.

Dedicated, with express permission, to H.R.H. VICTORIA, Crown
Princess of Prussia, Princess Royal of England.

Under the sanction of the Lord Bishop of Worcester.

Price 6s. 6d. Words alone (bound) 6d.

OPINIONS OF THE PRESS.

From the Pall-Mall Gazette.

"Mr. Brown-Borthwick's volume needed no apology when first issued in a smaller form than the present, and it assuredly requires none now, seeing that every enlargement has added to its interest and value. * * * Mr. John Goss, Mr. E. J. Hopkins, and Mr. J. Baptiste Calkin have composed unison tunes for this volume, which, with one or two exceptions, are models of their kind."

From the Choir and Musical Record.

"We cannot too heartily recommend the collection of gems contained in the Supplemental Hymn and Tune Book."

From the Choirmaster.

"By far the most interesting publication of late years in the way of new hymn-music. There is scarcely a page in the volume which might not justly be made the subject of admiring comment."

From the Spectator.

"We commend the result of much patient labour and unusual musical talent to the notice of our readers."

From the Orchestra.

"The Editor is deserving of thanks for his selection, not less than for the tunes he has composed, which are certainly among the best in the book."

From the Globe.

"The book is a most valuable addition to our national hymnody, and we can cordially recommend it for use in conjunction with any of the well-known collections now generally adopted."

From the Press and St. James's Chronicle.

"Of the tunes it may be said that they are all good, many of them singularly so, that none are common-place, and that in all of them the composers while by no means careless as to harmony, have studied that which is especially essential to success in hymn-tune writing, a melody which readily adapts itself to the ear, and is easily retained in the memory. When it is added that besides these essentials the music throughout the book is pleasing as well as devotional in character, there is surely nothing to be desired."

From the Churchman's Shilling Magazine

"As an addition to our present stock of really sound Church Tunes, this collection has a special value."

From the Oxford Times.

"We cordially recommend it to our readers, and we trust ere long to find it used, not only 'in Quires and places where they sing,' but also in our family circles, where we are sure it will be no less welcome as a valuable addition to our collections of sacred music."

From the Oxford Herald.

"It would seem almost impossible after the numerous issues from the press in the shape of hymnals and selections of Psalm Tunes, to find room for another, which would gain and merit the patronage of the public. In the instance of the above-named publication, we are enabled to say that it is worthy of comparison with any of its predecessors, and very superior in respect of melody and usefulness to Parochial Choirs generally."

From the Church Chronicle.

"With the small space at our disposal, we cannot refer to the tunes in detail, but we are convinced that every educated musician will agree in pronouncing the collection, from an art point of view, to be the finest ever issued from the press."

From the Musical Times.

"We cannot refrain from saying that in our experience we have never come across a Hymn Tune in which the charm of melody has been more happily seconded by musicianly harmonies, than in the setting of the hymn 'Praise, my soul, the King of Heaven,' by Mr. Goss. We repeat, that it is at once the most beautiful and dignified Hymn Tune which has lately come under our notice: creditable, in the highest degree, to its composer, and of unutterable value as a guide to young writers, who have latterly been so much given to roaming about 'at their own sweet will' in the matter of style. The influence for good which such a tune as this cannot fail to produce on modern Hymn-writing, is simply incalculable. Of other writers, we may mention an unison setting (with varied harmonies), of the hymn 'Saviour, again to Thy dear Name we raise,' by E. J. Hopkins, as being, in all respects, perfectly beautiful. A varied arrangement of the well-known Tune 'St. Ann's,' by Mr. Sullivan, is also masterly to the last degree. Not less so is a setting of the 'Dies i. e.' by Dr. Stainer, in which some fine and original effects are indicated in the accompaniments. Mr. J. B. Calkin as usual, is picturesque, fanciful in his harmonizations, and successful in every respect; and Mr. J. C. Ward deserves a word of warm commendation for his tune to 'O day of rest and gladness,' which is as good as most things in the book."

THE DIGITORIUM (Patent).—Every requisite to attain in an incredibly short time proficiency in playing on the Pianoforte, Organ and Harmonium, is acquired by a short practice on this remarkable and popular invention. Evenness of touch, flexibility of finger, strength of wrist, position of the hand and stretch of octave, are acquired by its use.

TO SCHOOLS the DIGITORIUM is invaluable. Immense saving in the wear of the Piano is effected. A substitute where there is no Piano, and for travelling. Mr. John Adlington, Prof. Mus., Choirmaster of St. Andrew, Organist to the Bishop of Aberdeen, writes—"It fully realises all that has been said in its favour. I have introduced it into several schools and families with great success."

THE DIGITORIUM (Patent).—Mr. Charles Hallé writes—"I consider the Digitorium a valuable invention." Mr. Brinley Richards—"One of the most simple and useful inventions I have yet seen." Dr. Rimbault, F.R.S., Musical Examiner to the College of Preceptors—"The practical utility of the Digitorium must be apparent at a glance to all who consider the subject with the least attention."—Forwarded in case (with 76 exercises) complete on receipt of 15s. 6d.; or with ivory keys, 18s. 6d. Myer Marks, Inventor and Patentee, 83, Norfolk-terrace, Westbourne-grove, London, W.

BREAKFAST.—EPPS'S COCOA.—Grateful and Comforting.—The very agreeable character of this preparation has rendered it a general favourite. The Civil Service Gazette remarks:—"The singular success which Mr. Epps attained by his homœopathic preparation of cocoa has never been surpassed by any experimentalist. By a thorough knowledge of the natural laws which govern the operations of digestion and nutrition, and by a careful application of the fine properties of well-selected cocoa, Mr. Epps has provided our breakfast tables with a delicately flavoured beverage which may save us many heavy doctors' bills." Made simply with boiling water or milk. Sold by the trade only in $\frac{1}{2}$ lb., $\frac{3}{4}$ lb., and 1lb. tin-lined packets, labelled—James Epps and Co., Homœopathic Chemists, London.
